

Amanda L. Holm, M.P.H., is the senior project manager for Henry Ford Health's (HFH) Tobacco Treatment Service (TTS). She has administered tobacco-related research, education and treatment programs and supported the development and implementation of HFH's tobacco-free property policy (2007) and its tobacco-free workday and nicotine-free hiring policies (2013). Amanda has collaborated with researchers in HFH's Department of Public Health Sciences, Institute on Multicultural Health and Global Health Initiative, as well as outside organizations. She received her Master of Public Health degree from the University of Michigan-Ann Arbor. She also serves as Vice Chair of the Detroit-Wayne-Oakland Tobacco-Free Coalition and Treasurer of Tobacco-Free Michigan.