

Karma Bryan, RN, PhD

I am an adjunct professor of nursing and chair of the local Agency for Substance Abuse Policy's tobacco/marijuana committee. I also serve with Audrey as a tobacco treatment counselor at the University of Kentucky's primary care clinic at the Salvation Army. We conduct group cessation classes for transitional women and parolees who are temporarily housed at the Salvation Army.