

Theresa Hankin, RRT, CTTS is the Smoking Cessation Education Coordinator for SUNY Upstate Medical University, which includes their employee program, community at large and Upstate's Cancer Center for patients and their family members. She has developed the Cancer Center Program from the ground up which includes a smoking cessation hardship program, a monthly quit smoking cafe and a monthly support group as well as one on one counseling and follow up phone counseling.